

2010s: Future Potential

Our most recent decade of graduates show a lot of potential. They are branching out into every field imaginable and becoming life-long learners that are inspired and empowered.

Karlie Ledergerber Kelsey Berrington

Karlie Ledergerber, a 2010 graduate is studying at the Michigan State University College of Veterinary Medicine. Kelsey Berrington, from the class of 2012, has already come home and is currently a 6th grade teacher at the middle school.

Sarah Tritt Eric Eldred Jordan Kreger

2013 graduates Sarah Tritt and Eric Eldred are striving to be their best. Tritt is studying at the MSU College of Veterinary Medicine and Eldred is studying at Case Western University having recently held an internship with NASA. In 2015, Jordan Kreger was accepted into the prestigious Johns Hopkins Biomedical Engineering Program.

Looking at where our most recent graduates will take us in the future, this year's Valedictorian Adam Shelby, president of the National Honor Society and student council, plans to study engineering at Michigan State University.

Hannah Swirple Tevon Hastings

THS ended up with two Salutatorians, Hannah Swirple and Tevon Hastings. Hannah was vice-president of the NHS and a two-time Gymnast of the Year winner. She plans to continue her education in chemistry or kinesiology. Tevon was a member of NHS and the THS Band. He was also named to the All-State first team in Bowling. He plans to study computer science at the University of Michigan.
